The 48th Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Sheffield, the new senator from Rhode Island, was sworn in.

The chair laid before the senate the report of the secretary of the treasury and comptroller of the currency.

Vest offered a resolution: directing an investigation into all leases of lands in the Indian territory for grazing or other purposes by the Indian tribes; the number of acres embraced in said leases, their terms and persons or corporations becoming lessees. Also all circumstances under which the leases were made, the means used in obtaining the leases and whether authorized by law.

THE HOUSE.

Wilson of the committee presented the credentials of Smith, member-elect from the seventh Iowa district to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Kasson. Smith took the oath of office.

Follot, as a question of privilege, presented the following preamble and resolution:

"I do impeach Lot Wright, United States marshal for the southern district of Ohio, of high crimes and misdemeanors. I charge him with the usurpation of power and the violation of the law, in that he appointed a large number of general and special deputy marshals to serve at the several precincts in Cincinnati, at the election for members of congress, on the 14th day of October, 1884, and armed six deputy marshals with pistols, said to have been furnished by the war department of the United States government; in that a large number of deputy marshals so appointed and armed were notorious criminals and men known to be of vicious and brutal habits and reputation, and many of them non-residents of Cincinnati and the state of Ohio; in that said deputy marshals, acting under his orders and directions, aided and abetted and encouraged the fraudulent intimidation of voters and gross outrages upon the elective franchise and the rights of the honest voters of the city in the furtherance of the interests of a political party and its candidates; therefore,

Resolved, That the committee of expenditures ascertain from the department of justice the amount which has been incurred and the direction of the same in the investigation of these charges and report to the committee of the house:

1. How many deputy marshals, general and special, were appointed and authorized by the said United States marshal to serve at the several voting precincts of the city, with the names and residence and voting precinct to which each were assigned.

2. What citizens, if any, of the several precincts, asked the appointment of such deputy marshals, with the names of such citizens, and the reasons, if any, of such request.

3. Whether any, and if so, how many, such deputy marshals have, prior to such appointment, been accused or convicted of crime, or were the men known to be of vicious, brutal habits and reputation.

4. Whether said deputy marshals were under the direction and control of purtisans and used the powers vested in them in the interest of any political party and aided in a fraudulent vote of such political party and its candidate.

5. What number and what kind of pistols or other deadly weapons were put into the hands of deputy marshals; who furnished the weapons; from whence were they received and how many such weapons have been returned, together with the names of such deputy marshals who have failed to return the weapons furnished them.

6. What amount of money was paid such deputy marshals and by whom ordered and at what rate per day.

7. In any other matter or thing connected with or germane to the subject of such investigations, the committee shall be vested with full power and the expenses of the investigation shall be paid out of the contingent fund.

Keifer made a point of order against the reception of the resolution but the speaker overruled it deciding that the resolution was presented as a matter of privilege and the house could determine for itself how the investigation should be proceeded with and that the committee should have charge of it.

After a long discussion the house adopted Follot's resolution for the investigation of the conduct of Lot Wright, marshal of the southern district of Ohio in the October election. The house has proceeded to the consideration of the inter-state commerce bill. The discussion will run all day.

The Court Against the Government.

CAIRO, Dec. 2.—In the case brought by the Caluso de la Dette Publique against the government to prevent the latter from diverting certain taxes from the sinking fund to the general treasury the court to-day decided against the government. Gene to Girty.

SALER, N. J., Dec. 2.—The legal execution of Patrick Sullivan, which took place in the county jail this morning, was the closing act of a tragedy seldom equaled. The story of the crime is as follows: Ella Watson on the night of the 28th of August last, while proceeding to her home over a lonely road near Yorktown, was waylaid, robbed, ravished and murdered and her body concealed in the bushes near by, where it was discovered a few days afterwards. Sullivan upon trial pleaded guilty.

Mrs. Lyman has been incarcerated at Longue Point at the instance of her husband since April 1882.

Killed the Constable.

FOUR SMITH, Ark., Dec. 2.—A horrible murder was committed at Van Buren yesterday evening. Joseph S. H. Houck, a township constable, while endeavoring to arrest a negro desperado named John Williams, was enrolling for him at the house of another negro when Williams stepped up behind him with a double-barreled shot gun and blew the whole top of his head off. Houck died instantly, his head being nearly severed from his body. After doing the shooting Williams mounted Houck's horse and escaped to the woods. He will doubtless be captured to-day, for the whole town is greatly excited over the murder of their constable and are determined to bring his murderer to justice.

The Southern Plague.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 2.—A special from Pineville, Ky., to the Courier-Journal has the following in regard to the terrible scourge:

The disease made its appearance in the latter part of August and in many sections has raged most fiercely, hundreds of people being attacked. Six out of ten cases have proved fatal. The sickness is generally attributed to the weather and bad water. It is different in some respects from the plague in this section, being a very aggravated flux, accompanied by fever. The griping, paralysis and choking attending the disease here are absent there.

When I crossed Stinking creek, Knox county, yesterday, I entered the infected district. Many cases exist up that stream, and the number of deaths has already been large. In this county, Belle, the disease is cutting a wide swath, and along House Straight, Puckett and Greasy creeks people have died by the wholesale. Last evening some runners came into Pineville for medical assistance for cases which had just appeared in various parts of the county.

Mr. W. M. Bingham, a gentleman of undisputed reliability and the father-in-law of Dr. Burdick, the only physician in the entire county, is my authority for saying that in this county alone over 200 deaths have occurred and the cases are multiplying rapidly.

It was learned that the sickness was regarded as contagious under certain circumstances; in the same way that typhoid fever may be contracted by those who spend much time in the sick room. As a rule the houses have but one or two rooms, and in these the entire family is compelled to eat and sleep.

One of the reasons for the great mortality was told me to-day. In 1854 a very violent form of flux, almost the same as that now raging, visited the section now infected. Then it was entirely unknown to the few country doctors in the mountains, and the treatment could be, of course, little more than experimental. About the only medicines prescribed were calomel and quinine, and the slaughter was something frightful. The people became alarmed at the great mortality and, after a time, refused the aid of the physicians, preferring to trust to their own simple remedies for relief. The prejudice created then has never died out, and to-day among the more ignorant class of the mountaineers a horror of the doctors exists that no reasoning can overcome. For some diseases they will let them prescribe, but for this they will neither seek nor accept medical aid. This statement is vouched for and its truth may be relied upon.

A Large Loss of Property.

BURLINGTON, Ia., December 1.—Early yesterday forenoon two car loads of articles collected in Iowa for the New Orleans exposition were almost completely destroyed by a collision of parts of each train, a few miles north of this city. The cars contained a large number of paintings and embroidery and specimens of women's work, collected by Mrs. Scott, which were either totally destroyed or damaged beyond repair, and the loss cannot be computed. The articles destroyed represented collections of woman's work, and this department of Iowa showing will, in consequence, be a failure.

Among other articles destroyed were seeds, grains, vegetables, large exhibits of canned corn from Cedar Falls; oatmeal in packages and bulk from Dubuque, Muscatine and Cedar Rapids.

Fire.

MADISON, Wis., December 1.—The Science Hall of the State University was totally destroyed by fire this evening. The loss is $210,000, including many valuable scientific apparatus, which cannot be duplicated easily.

Diaz Inaugurated.

CITY OF MEXICO, December 1.—Diaz was quietly inaugurated president of Mexico to-day. The United States and the South American committees arrived yesterday.

LOCAL LINES.

Mrs. C. S. Knight is at home after a visit to her parents at Logansport.

Advance seats for Hon. Daniel Dougherty's lecture can be had at Woodworth's drug store.

Smiley Walker, advance agent for the "Beggars Student," is in the city and stops at the Avenue house.

Theodore Schuhler, of Sheldon, was in the city to-day, seeking a location to engage in the grocery business.

Next Thursday evening August Drenkeling, of Concordia college, will lecture at the German Lutheran Library hall.

John Peters, of the Horton Manufacturing company, has returned from a tour of the south. He reports business brisk in Dixie.

Some one stole Will Oppenheim's hat out of the court room yesterday and the brilliant young attorney is after the missing tile.

Deputy Marshal Limecooly yesterday pursued a crowd of boys who were cutting trees in the rear of the Wabash round house.

Fred D. Marks, the business manager of Patti Ross, is at the Avenue. Mr. Marks is from London, and is careful to register the fact.

The interest on the Masonic Temple bonds has been deposited in the Hamilton National bank and is at the disposal of coupon holders.

Miss Mabel Grover, who has been the guest of the Misses Hanna and Mrs. Hugh McCulloch Bond, left for her Dominion home yesterday.

Louis Banet was yesterday fined $20, to which costs were added, for selling liquor without a license. His application for license had been granted, but he neglected to secure it.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL are as follows: Slightly warmer and generally fair weather, southerly winds.

The ladies of the Women's Gospel Temperance Union to-day applied for permission to hold services at the jail. Sheriff Nelson and the county commissioners readily consented to the request and the prisoners will now be converted.

Old Jim Briant, the fish vendor, was shipped to the soldier's home, at Dayton, Ohio, this morning by Marshal Meyer. Jim used to be quite a masher in his day, but will now abandon all that business to pass the remainder of his days quietly at the home.

Peter Waldschmidt has been accepted for treatment at the insane asylum at Ludwigsburg. Peter has been in the mad house before and this time, anticipating another attack of the malady, applied to County Clerk Muier for admission to the place. Sheriff Nelson will convey the man to the hospital.

Ed Smith and Ed. Caney, the alleged Harmon house burglars, were taken to the penitentiary yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Schroeder. Smith is a little sore over his sentence and it is a little strange because Casey swore at the trial that Smith was not in the hotel and in no way implicated in the drunken escapade.

Thomas Tobin and Edward McLaughlin were arraigned for drunkenness at the Barr street police court to-day and both went to jail. William Duggally was up for slugging an emigrant named William Stohle. Stohle was present and had his bloody cranium wrapped in cloths. Duggally was fined for his pugilistic sport.

Bishop Cyrus D. Fos is to reopen the Fort Wayne college hall on Sunday, Dec. 21. This hall is 60x140 feet in size, perhaps the largest in the city. The board of trustees will perfect the arrangements at their meeting this evening. The M. E. churches of the city are expected to unite in the services and make it a great occasion.

THE SENTINEL some days ago stated Chas. Lang was conducting a tobacco house at Cleveland. It is John B. Lang, his brother, who owns the business. Charles Lang is a member of Lieck's company soon to produce Gilbert and Sullivan's latest opera. Mr. Lang has a national reputation on the operatic stage and is not likely to give up his profession for business.

W. P. Lake, a former Fort Wayne boy, is with the Spitz-Erdeman party now playing an engagement at the Academy. Lake resigned a clerkship in the Pittsburg offices here to go on the stage and he is a clever actor. His manner is graceful, natural and calculated to impress an audience favorably. Spiteful criticisms will not injure Mr. Lake and they need not annoy him.

Wm. Lepker was bound over by Justice Ryan yesterday and will await a grand jury indictment unless he can furnish $300 bail. He stole a watch from Jacob Tschonen, and some time ago was up for stealing $10 from a woman. Lepker has been working the detective racket for years, and has worked the officers for big money on his "clues." Lepker made a break for liberty yesterday, but Constable Kelly nailed him on Barr street.

THE COURT HOUSE.

A. H. Bittinger has sued Hon. Peter Kiser, but the nature of the suit is not noted.

The Ellison-Nickel Plateau is on trial in the branch superior court. Dr. A. F. Buchman testified to-day.

Colerick and Oppenheim have sued George Hiser to recover $350, for extensive legal service rendered.

Louis Banet, A. Dukeman and L. F. Butler have each paid $100 into the school fund for license to retail intoxicants.

Morris, Aldrich and Barrett are attorneys for Wm. Plummer, who yesterday sued to set aside the assignment of E. A. Pierr.

In the superior court S. L. Morris set a special judge in the case of Stirling vs. Seavey. Judge Hench heard motions this morning.

Morris, Aldrich and Barrett have begun action against Wm. Baker to recover money due Rothschild Bros. The amount involved is not stated.

In the case of the Old Fellows Cemetery company, of New Haven, vs. Henry C. M. Burgess et al. a judgment in favor of the plaintiff was given for $127.85.

The county commissioners, being in regular session, have as yet transacted no important business. Their time has been chiefly occupied in the allowance of bills.

Sheriff Nelson will at once re-advertise for sale the firm stock of A. J. Taylor & Sons. The restraining order obtained by Randall and Penfield for Rothschild Bros. only enjoins the sale of Mr. Taylor's personal property.

The last will of Eugene Monnot, of Jefferson township, has been recorded and entered for probate. To the wife is bequeathed the farm during her natural life and the personal property is to be equally divided among the children.

In the circuit court Mrs. Michael Meelan is suing for the removal of Mr. James Wolfe as the administrator of the estate of her husband, who was killed on the Grand Rapids road. Mr. Wolfe compromised with the railroad company, which paid $250 for the fatality to the young man, and Mrs. Meelan desires to set aside the compromise on the ground that it is unjust.

A WAYWARD LASS.

Ellenora Mull, a Bull Rapids Belle, Meets $20 from Her Pigeon to Embark on a Life of Shame—Her Father Here.

Yesterday John Mull, who resides at Bull Rapids, sought Deputy Prosecutor Bittenger and related that his daughter Ellenora had nipped from his pocket $20 and with an abandoned female, named Belle Johnson, started for this city. They were driving here and the old gentleman came on by rail to head the wayward lass off. Mr. Bittenger suggested prosecution as the only remedy he could name, but the father's body shuddered and big tears ran down the furrows of his cheeks. He could not think of a prison for his child, ungrateful as she was and started out to meet her. He stroled about the town, and last night the girl ran into her father's arms in a Columbia street dive. She almost fainted at the sudden meeting but dropped on her knees to implore forgiveness and be taken home. Many a tough heart was warmed to tears at the scene and the two people left for their home at midnight. Ellenora is a pretty girl and as plump as a peach. She was dressed in modest country garments and they seemed to add to her charms. Mr. Mull is wealthy and to Mr. Bittenger attributed that his daughter's waywardness was caused by his refusal to let her wed an honest farmer lad near his home, but said the governor, "the ceremony can't come too soon, now, stranger."

High Praise.

One of the editorial writers of the London Daily Sportsman, in an interview with the Australian cricketers, cricketers, athletes and gymnasts, states as the confirmed opinion of all that St. Jacobs Oil, for the cure of pain, aches and all bodily ailments, has no equal and its reputation as such is recognized wherever it is known.

Mr. Worth, the man milliner, intends to come to America to lecture on art in dress.

Remedies that are blunt, square and direct do not appeal to the imagination. Oil is oil, salts are salts, quinine is quinine, Athlophoros is Athlophoros. Everybody knows what they are designed for and what they will do. Oil won't cure cancer. Salts won't cure fits. Quinine won't cure mumps. Athlophoros won't cure hydrophobia. Yet each has its natural, unfeigned place. Athlophoros cures rheumatism and its twin disease, neuralgia.

Gentlemen: We take great pleasure in stating that we have used Pond's Extract exclusively and satisfactorily in our medical department. We have found it to be a most excellent article in the treatment of rheumatism, lumbago, inflammatory affections, etc. The enclosed sworn statement of Hugh Harvey, 291 1st av. N. Y. C. speaks for itself. The benefit to other sufferers its publication will cause, will amply repay Mr. Harvey for the trouble of procuring the affidavit. With best wishes, I remain, very respectfully, W. A. Stirling, sec'y.

Hay Fever.

My brother Myron and myself were both cured to all appearance of catarrh and hay fever last July and August. Up to this date, December 28, neither have had any return of these troubles. Ely's Cream Balm was the medicine used—Gabriel Ferris, Spencer, N. Y.

I recommend to those suffering (as I have) with hay fever, Ely's Cream Balm. I have tried nearly all the remedies, and give this a decided preference over them all. It has given me immediate relief.—C. T. Stephens, Hardware Merchant, thaca, N. Y. Price 50 cts.
